Heraldic Coat of Arms Gifts

THE ART OF HERALDRY was developed to its highest form during the Crusades (1096-1270). The knights who rode forth to battle in those days were encased in heavy armor and in order to identify themselves, they decorated their shields with personal devices or insignia. The term "coat of arms" derives from the practice of displaying such insignia on the surcoat worn over a suit of armor.

IN THE BEGINNING, only those who fought were allowed to wear such devices. However, when artillery made armor obsolete, shields lost their military significance and coats of arms became hereditary family symbols, handed down with pride from generation to generation.

IN TODAY'S CHANGING WORLD, the display of one's coat of arms indicates a family stability reaching back thru the centuries, and interest in heraldry is becoming increasingly widespread!

HERALDIC NAME-COAT-OF-ARMS FOR PERSONAL GIFTING

If your name is listed at right, you can proudly display coat of arms on stationery, jewelry, wall pieces - 14 different items to choose from. Each will be decorated with name & crest in colors fired under glaze on ceramic & tile pieces, printed on stationery, engraved on jewelry. SPECIFY NAME

FIND NEW DRESSING EASE WITH... FashionAble

The simplified designs on these two pages are the result of a new kind of thinking about the routine of daily dressing!

Are all those hooks and eyes really needed? Do closings always have to be in the most difficult to reach places? Why do slips have to go over head, mussing hair, or be wiggled up from floor? Does the struggle with the girdle have to be so acute that its pantomine has become standard nightclub entertainment?

Such questions began to haunt me a few years ago when, because of partial disability, I found I could no longer put on and take off intimate apparel without help.

I began to wonder if it is really necessary to turn this everyday business of dressing into the kind of exercise that requires all our facilities -- an exercise that many of us cannot do alone.

Happily... the answer was "no!" All that was needed was a fresh approach.

These attractive, well fitting styles were created for two kinds of women. Those who, like myself, have physical limitations that cause dressing difficulties -- and those who simply and wisely see no reason why this daily ritual shouldn't be as pleasant and relaxed as possible. For either reason... they more than live up to their promise.

Sincerely,

Van Davis Odell

VELCRO BRA—Velcro* amazing textile fastener that needs only to be pressed together to hold . . . makes this bra incredibly easy to put on, even with only one arm in good working condition. Elastic bands cross in back, end as part of satin covered Velcro panels that close in front. Attach Velcro loosely on one side . . . adjust cups . . . tighten bands . . . press . . . it's on! Cups cut for beautiful uplift; good quality white cotton and lace. Specify no. & size. (¼ lb.) $3.98

STRETCH BRA—Made just for us, this is basically the same bra that started a revolution in this field. In our version, the hooks and eyes in back have been eliminated. Simply drop bra over shoulders and pat into position. With a crotchety shoulder or functional loss in one hand, do just the opposite. Put on bra before anything else. Step into it, pull up from feet over shoulders, adjust to figure. Built-in uplift encourages natural cleavage. Straps do not slip down or need adjusting. White only. Specify no. & size.

GIRDLE—Designed for women who are unable to cope with the usual pulling, tugging, and hooking . . . this is unbelievably simple for those who CAN engage in the struggle but don't care to! 4 inconspicuous, facing zippers make the difference. Before they're closed, the front panel is almost completely open . . . converting the girdle into the easiest kind of step-into. Remember to zip an equal distance from one side to the other to avoid build-up of zipper tensions since there are no hooks and eyes on zipper pads. Medium length. Figure controlling, comfortable, white only. (¼ lb.) B-4790 ..... $9.98

SLIP—Truly luxurious yet easy to put on! White nylon zipper in front extends to hipline . . . eliminates the need for putting slip over head or wiggling it up from the floor. Simply step into . . . zip up . . . no twisting . . . no rumpled hairdo! Zipper is so tiny that it can't be seen even under sheerest blouse! Front and back bodice of beautiful stretch lace that insures wonderful fit. White only.

LARGE DORO SCARF—One great circle of sheer chiffon becomes a magic loop to perform any number of easy fashion tricks to enliven your costume! For instance . . . Drape it over head as a glamorous hood . . . use instead of blouse under suit . . . to fill in plunging neckline . . . shoulder wrap . . . big bow . . . or simply as dramatic color accent for plain dress. Cut long and full, double bias of chiffon sheer nylon is ingeniously put together. Just drop over head!
Specify color—Navy, white, gold, red, olive green, turquoise blue. (¼ lb.) B-4727 . . . $5.98

(¼ lb.) B-4726 . . . . . $2.98

MARKED HOSIERY features permanent markings for garter placement! Makes it possible to put stockings on and fasten garters before girdle is in position and tension develops between garters and stockings. Stockings twist less, feel more comfortable when garters are correctly placed. Seamless, run-resistant mesh in dress sheer weight, one go-with-all color.
